

JAPS HEAVY LOSS

Casualties in Yalu River Battle Said To Number 7000.

News Comes in Private Dispatch From Port Arthur But Details are Lacking--A Dearth of Provisions Along Siberian Railway--The Day's Far East War News.

PARIS, APRIL 23--(BULLETIN)--DISPATCH FROM ST. PETERSBURGH TODAY, STATES THAT THE JAPANESE LOSSES IN THE REPORTED ENGAGEMENT AT THE YALU RIVER, NUMBERED 7,000. THIS INFORMATION IS CONTAINED IN PRIVATE DISPATCHES RECEIVED FROM PORT ARTHUR WHICH ARE SAID TO CONFIRM THE RUMORS OF A BATTLE IN THAT REGION.

London, April 23.--The Times Russian correspondents say the difficulty of obtaining facilities for transit for other than military requirements has caused dearth of provisions along the Siberian railway. Prices have doubled in Irkutsk, now a regular military station where a few days rest is allowed to the troops on their journey eastward.

Some cases of disorderly conduct having been ascribed to drink, the authorities prohibited the sale of spirituous liquors to the officers and men at the railway stations. This caused widespread dissatisfaction among the troops.

Since the commencement of the war the conveyance of political prisoners to Siberia by administrative order has been marked by much greater severity. Political prisoners generally travel in groups of twenty or thirty and have hitherto been allowed to communicate with each other at certain stages of the journey, but this privilege has been withdrawn, with the result that riots have occurred on several occasions.

London, April 23.--A dispatch to the Central News, from Port Arthur, says news has been received there of the complete destruction of a Japanese column on the Yalu. No details, it is added, were obtainable.

THREE FIREMEN KILLED

And Score of Others Injured in An Explosion Today.

Fire at Hardware Company's Factory in Newark, New Jersey--Tank of Naptha Let go Wrecking the Five Story Building--All City Firemen Out.

Newark, N. J., April 23.--Three firemen were killed and twenty injured in an explosion in the factory of the Weiner & Company's saddlery hardware concern at 87 Mechanic street this morning. The dead:

Leo Ross, truck No. 3.
Jacob Bleyhle.
Lieut. Patrick J. Donohue, engine 7, died in hospital.

Among those badly injured are: Wm. B. Crane, Capt. Teo. Wolfe, Capt. Russling Bercaugh, Lieut. Patrick J. Donohue and numerous firemen.

The building was a five-story brick and the explosion is thought to have resulted from a tank of naphtha taking fire. Fire was discovered in the factory shortly before 5 o'clock and an alarm was sent in which was followed almost directly by a second call.

Fourteen engines and four truck companies responded and most of the firemen who had answered the second call were massed in front of the building when the explosion occurred.

There was nothing to warn the firemen of their danger until the crash came. The roof of the structure went in while the walls fell outward. Two of the men who were killed were on the roof of a one story structure adjoining the Weiner factory when the wall of the big brick structure came down on them apparently a solid sheet.

Chief Engineer Robert Kiersted was in front of the building and he was covered by a mass of wreckage but in some miraculous way he escaped serious injury. He crawled out after the wreckage had been lifted from his body and took charge of the work of rescue. All the ambulances of the city were sent to the scene and for more than an hour police reserves and firemen worked in clearing the wreckage away and taking out the injured men.

A third alarm was sent in after the explosion calling out nearly all the firemen in the city. Probable loss $50,000.

Berlin, April 22.--The Frankfurter Zeitung reports that the Russian Council of Ministers, consisting of the old conservative statesmen, have demanded a limited form of popular government for Russia. The minister of the interior is said to have agreed to their demands to a degree. This innovation, continues the paper, is the first step in the direction of popular representation and is regarded as a result of the war, which may produce further domestic changes.

UTAH SUPREME COURT JUDGE

Tells of the Domination in Political Affairs.

Of the Mormon Apostles--An Interesting Chapter in the Reed Smoot Case.

Washington, D. C., April 23.--The testimony before the senate committee was in a line to further establish the domination of the Mormon Church in state politics. The first witness was Judge O. W. Powers, appointed an Assistant Supreme Judge of Utah in 1886 by President Cleveland. At that time prosecutions under the Edmunds act were just beginning, and during his incumbency he said there had been about 100 persons prosecuted for polygamy and polygamous cohabitation, among them Lorenzo Snow, one of the Twelve Apostles. Mr. Snow was convicted and sentenced.

Judge Powers said he had failed persons who applied for naturalization. In regard to an application by Neil Hanson, Judge Powers said he was informed by Hanson that he would obey the laws of the church rather than laws of the land if they should run counter. The application for citizenship was denied. In regard to prosecutions, Judge Powers says most of them had been for polygamous cohabitation. Few prosecutions were had for polygamy, he said, as there was then no marriage law and marriages were secret, and polygamy therefore was hard to prove. Judge Powers reviewed the history of Utah to show the close relations of the Mormon Church with political affairs; also, the intimate association of the church with the local and municipal government. He showed that the church controlled in civil as well as ecclesiastical affairs. Judge Powers spoke specifically of the Thatcher and Roberts cases when these men were charged with "disobeying the rules of the church." The witness quoted a number of officials of the church in their campaigns against Thatcher and Roberts.

The witness also told of two teachers in Mormon churches and schools being deposed from their ecclesiastical authority because their political preferences were not approved by the church, and Nichol Hood, who wrote a letter adversely criticizing the election of Reed Smoot to the senate, on the ground that high church authorities should not accept such positions.

TURKEY'S SYMPATHY

Constantinople, April 23.--The Sultan in order that Russia might appreciate the sympathy of Turkey with her in the war, has decorated Captain Rudnian of the cruiser Variag, destroyed at Chemulpo, with Osman orders.

RARE

Egyptian Archaeological Discovery Has Just Been Made.

London, April 23.--Plans to excavate Heracleum, which will be carried out by the co-operation of Italy with all the civilized countries, are soon to be set on foot according to a Times dispatch from Rome today. This archaeological undertaking will be under a central management committee at Rome with national committees.

A rare Egyptian archaeological discovery is announced today in the Times in an article signed by Edouard Neville and H. R. Hall, who state that through an excavation on behalf of the Egyptian exploration fund, the mortuary chapel of a king of the Eleventh dynasty, 2,500 B. C., has been unearthed. The chapel is in a rare state of preservation and it is thought that much will be learned of the history and art of the Eleventh dynasty.

Mr. Vernon--Ira Phillips of North Mulberry street, sustained a stroke of paralysis early Friday, and his condition is regarded as serious.

BODIES

Of Dead Bandits Prepared for Burial--Agitation Against Hanging.

Chicago, April 23.--The bodies of the three dead car barn bandits have been prepared for burial. The funerals of all the executed men will take place Monday morning at 11 o'clock at Roberts' undertaking establishment. Sheriff Barrett has decided to start agitation to effect legislation requiring all hanging to take place in the state penitentiary. The sheriff also may seek to have a law passed substituting the electric chair for the scaffold.

RIOTING

EXPECTED AS RESULT OF THE RAILWAY STRIKE

Government Has Hit Upon Plan Which It is Believed Will Eventually Break the Strike.

Budapest, April 23.--The striking railway men have decided not to accept the terms dictated by the government and the authorities will today place 5,000 non-union workers in the positions left vacant by the strikers. Rioting is expected and every preparation is being made to resist the strikers to the last.

Vienna, April 23.--The government has hit upon a plan which, it is believed, will eventually break the strike of the railway workers in Hungary. All the army reservists among the strikers, numbering 11,000, out of the 70,000 men out, will be ordered to join colors and work trains as soldiers. The strike leaders are endeavoring to persuade the river navigation men to join the strikers, thus completely tying up all traffic.

Constantinople, April 23.--In consequence of the railway strike in Hungary, posts have been stopped. No mails arrived in the Turkish capital since Thursday.

MINER

From Colorado Endorses What Has Been Said of Newark Field.

Mr. Joseph Ebricht of Zanesville, an experienced Colorado miner, who has read of the Slater-Stinger gold field east of Newark, visited the place Saturday, and after a thorough examination of the land and surroundings endorsed everything that has been said of it.

DYING BOY

Bade Each Member of the Family Farewell and Peacefully Sank Into Eternal Rest.

Utica, April 23.--Funeral services were held Friday over the remains of Master Harry Stone, son of Marshal George Stone. The services were held at the Bell church. The boy died at 2 o'clock Thursday, as already printed in the Advocate. Knowing he was dying the little boy said goodbye to each member of the family, telling that his little sister Mabel he called from her bed that he might see her. Harry was eight years old last August.

Western Lands.

Washington, April 23.--President Roosevelt this morning signed the bill opening for sale 416,000 acres of land in Redwood Indian Agency, S. D. Senator Gamble and Representatives Burke and Martin of South Dakota, were present at the time and Representative Burke secured the pen used.

Fort Worth, Texas, April 23.--A Galveston special today says the heaviest rain fall in ten years fell last evening. The fall was nine and one-half inches. Some streets are covered with water five feet deep.

Fredericktown--W. A. Roemer, 71, was found dead in bed Friday. Funeral Monday.

SOPHS BANNER FLOATED HIGH

But Denison Freshies Said It Must Come Down.

Class Clash is on at Granville--Big Banner Burned at an Eighty-Foot Elevation.

Granville, O., April 23.--The Sophs' big banner which floated eighty feet above the earth this morning, is no more. The Freshmen applied the torch about noon today and the banner went up in smoke. This is how it happened.

When the Freshmen saw that 1806 flag floating high in the air this morning, they wondered how they could get it down. Then an inspiration seized one of the number. He procured a rope, attached a weight and climbed to the roof of a building nearby. The student cast the rope and succeeded in getting it over the pole upon which rested the banner. A sponge filled with burning oil was then raised to the flag and the banner burned, but before this was accomplished the Freshies had shot it full of holes. What the Sophs will now do is yet to be learned.

Granville, O., April 23.--The irrepressible conflict that is ever waged between Sophomores and Freshmen of every properly constituted college, has broken out again in Denison university, this place. Friday night the Sophomores of the university put their class banner on top of the tall smoke stack of the heating plant of the university and this morning when the first rays of the rising sun gilded the hills about old Denison the Sophomore banner floated proudly in the breeze, 80 feet from the ground, and flaunted defiance in the faces of the rambunctious Freshmen. The smoke stack is built of brick, eight or ten feet in diameter at the base and is 80 feet high. During the night the Sophomores worked like beavers all night and built a scaffold around the smoke stack, reaching clear to its top. Then they mounted the scaffold and hoisted their banner to the top of the smoke stack, where it still proudly waves.

The Sophomores were engaged this morning in tearing down the scaffold and had got a large part of it removed when the Freshmen discovered what a strategic move had been made upon them. They immediately rallied their forces and attacked the Sophomores, trying to prevent the further removal of the scaffold, in order that they might climb up on it themselves to the top of the smoke stack and remove the insulting banner. But they were gallantly repulsed by the Sophomores in a sharp but bloodless affray, and the Sophomores still hold the smoke stack, the banner and all the rest of the world. The Freshmen say, however, that they will get that banner down if they have to pull the smoke stack down.

ENGLISH

Are Indignant Because Secrets Were Revealed To Kaiser William.

Manchester, April 23.--A dispatch today states that indignation is felt in army and navy circles over the action of the authorities in revealing the secrets and defenses of Gibraltar and Malta to Kaiser William and those of Devonport and Portsmouth to Prince Henry of Prussia. Not even Englishmen, says the paper, are permitted to examine these defenses. In the event of an Anglo-German war, Germany would have an excellent idea of the plans of those places, which could well be utilized.

Mother Jones Submits.

Salt Lake City, April 23.--Eric Gen. Cannon returned this morning from Helper, accompanied by state health officer Beatty. Dr. Beatty stated that "Mother" Jones had submitted to quarantine and the striking miners had agreed to surrender. The miners wanted for assistance in obtaining the quarantine laws relaxed. The strikers promised to carry out the state laws and offer no resistance to the officers.

FINISHING TOUCHES

Of the Most Iniquitous Legislature in Ohio's History.

Abolition of Spring Elections and the Cox School Code Would not Have Been Tolerated a Few Years Ago--Herrick Supplants Republicanism With Practical Monarchy.

Columbus, April 23.--The Republican Seventy-sixth General Assembly of Ohio has put the finishing touches on its auto-biography and the closing chapters in a state of perfection show the most iniquitous record in the history of Buckeye legislation. No review of the work of this legislature would be competent that did not take into consideration its immediate predecessor, the Seventy-fifth General Assembly, and its proceedings in extra session a year ago. The crimes and blunders of the present legislature have followed in logical sequence upon those of the other. The latter conceived the Cox municipal code, which was intended in order to undermine home rule in this state, and all the subsequent proceedings of the present legislature have been in strict accord with the character and policy of the former one. The Cox code was the foundation laid a year ago for never triumphs of bossism and hoodlums. The act of this legislature mightiest in its immediate political consequences was the abolition of spring elections at the demand of the party bosses in the large cities of the state. The object this act has always been admitted to be political and opposed to home rule and to good municipal government. It has been forced upon the people of this state against their unanimous protest and has drawn the attention of the country to Ohio in a manner calculated to bring the blush of shame to the cheek of the state's average inhabitant. For a number of years at least there can be no relief from the operations of this act and any pretense of relief at any time can be found only in Republican promises made notoriously untrustworthy by the history of the present session.

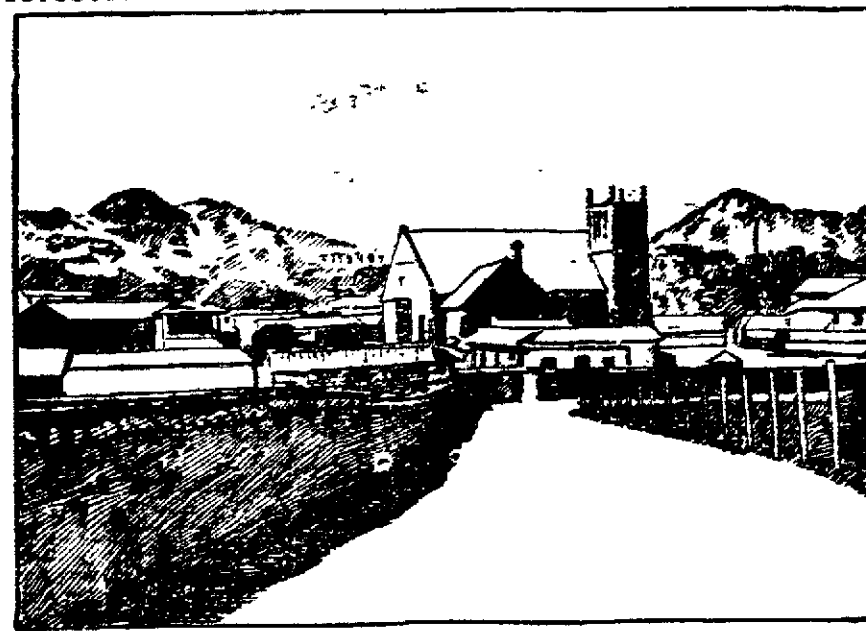

The Republicans have slaughtered the school code very much as they did the municipal code at the extra session a year ago. The intelligent educators of Ohio and all parents who take an interest in the public schools must suffer the humiliation of admitting that the counsel of political bosses is more potent in the government of the schools and the education of the youth of Ohio than the advice of those who have no selfish interest in politics, but who fully understand the needs of popular education.

Among the immoral legislation involving the greatest blundering from a political standpoint, the Brannock district option bill stands foremost. In his emasculation of this measure Governor Herrick assumed a power over the legislative branch of the government, which, if carried to its logical conclusion, would supplant republicanism with a practical monarchy in this state. The governor's holding the veto power as a club over the heads of legislators in order to force them to do his bidding was perhaps the most dangerous proceeding of the session and the one calculated to create the greatest alarm among observers of republican tendencies. In its entire attitude toward the Brannock bill the Republican party as represented by the administration and the majority in both houses, played the role of Dr. Jekyll and Mr. Hyde. It was hail-fellow-well-met with the pious and the wicked--a modern game of playing both ends against the middle in legislation. The Republican majority opened its arms and took the representatives of the churches and the schools to its bosom, but while this was going on the Republican governor extended the right hand of fellowship to the saloon interests and prepared the fatted calf for a revelry at the expense of the temperance cause. The Republican majority winked the other eye at the Republican governor, and the executive returned the wink with interest. The Republican Dr. Jekyll rubbed his pliant hands and smiled his broadest while gently taking the representatives of temperance into his confidence, but the Republican Mr. Hyde knocked down the symbol of temperance in a desperate assault, jumped on the prostrate body, stamped upon its face until it became unrecognizable and choked the last vestige of life from the corpse in demonic glee. The result as usual in cases of such hypocrisy is that the Republican party of Ohio has satisfied no person and no faction interested in the Brannock bill on either side. It has earned the contempt of both sides and can expect nothing more than to pay dearly for its two-faced treachery.

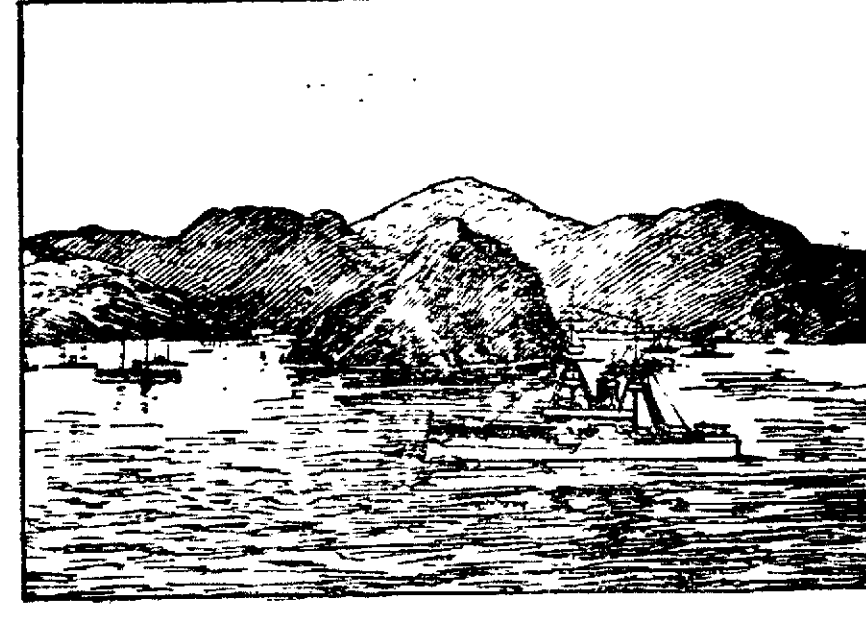

The Seventy-sixth general assembly has drained the treasury as if it were composed of so much loot. Unprecedented extravagance in public expenditures has been the rule since the opening of the session and its close came with something like a drunken orgy of this kind of legislation. Salaries have been raised wherever the hand of grab has been able to grip the paw of graft. Among the last acts of the session was the passage by the house and senate of the Chisholm bill, legalizing public gambling at race meetings and agricultural exhibitions. A special act has been passed for the exclusive benefit of bonding companies in this state, so that personal integrity of bondsmen in Ohio will henceforth be held at a minimum. At every turn the corporations have had the best of the situation and when assailed it has been a "hold-up."

Only fear of public indignation deterred the majority and the administration from enacting the bill in favor of a franchise commission, to parcel out all the public franchises in the state and the bill to place the entire election machinery of all the cities, counties, wards, townships and precincts in the hands of the secretary of state. These contemplated measures will be put into effect if the people of Ohio again make the mistake of trusting the Republican party with the control of another legislature immediately following the discredited Seventy-sixth General Assembly.

LODGE NEWS

Daughters of America.

The Daughters of America of this city will hold an important meeting this evening in the A. G. U. W. hall.

Masonic.

Acme Lodge No. 554, F. & A. M., at its last meeting conferred the Entered Apprentice degree on five candidates. A special meeting will be held on next Thursday night, on which occasion the Fellow Craft degree will be conferred.

Fraternal Order of Eagles.

On Tuesday evening, April 26, Licking Aerie No. 387, will initiate one of the largest classes ever put through any order in this city. Sixty applications for membership have already been balloted upon, and at the last meeting twenty-two additional applications were received. There are features about the Eagles that no other order in the city enjoys that would pay any one to inquire into the details. It is the only order furnishing a physician for its members and their families and pays more sick benefits. Licking Aerie is not yet a year old, and already has a membership of nearly 400, with $5000 in paid up building and loan stock, which is a showing that cannot be excelled in Newark.

Camels.

At the meeting of Monarch lodge No. 56, Munificent Order of Camels, 60 applications for membership were received. A committee was appointed to take charge of the arrangements for their initiation and it has been definitely decided to celebrate the class initiation Tuesday evening, May 3, in various ways. A street parade will be one of the features of the evening. This will be out of the usual in the way of secret society parades. A banquet will be served after the ritualistic work has been performed. It is thought that there will be a hundred candidates by the time of the initiation.

It is also the intention of the lodge to give an entertainment a Taylor hall shortly after May 3. The Cross sisters of Granville, will be the principal attraction.

Maccabees.

The Sir Knights of the Maccabees requested a meet at their hall tonight at 8:30, to arrange for attending the funeral of Brother James Lucius Sullivan.

Knights of Columbus.

There will be a special meeting this evening at 8 o'clock, of Newark Council, 721, Knights of Columbus, at their hall in the Anker building, to make arrangements to attend the funeral of their late brother, Lucius Sullivan, which will take place from the St. Francis de Sales church on Monday morning at 5 o'clock.

T. J. DAILY, Grand Knight. THOS. FITZGERALD, Secretary.

American Protective Union.

Newark Council, No. 1, held its regular meeting on last Thursday evening with a large attendance of the members. A class of ten was instructed in the mysteries of the order, also 25 applications were received and acted upon. At the next regular meeting on Thursday, April 28, a large class will be initiated, also all the members are requested to be present as there is business of importance to be transacted.

U. R. K. P. Ball.

By special request Licking Company No. 121, Uniformed Rank, Knights of Pythias, will give another one of their enjoyable dances at Assembly hall on next Wednesday evening, April 27. The music for the occasion will be furnished by Marsh's orchestra, and a fine time is anticipated.

A stated conference of St. Luke's Commandery No. 24, Knights Templar, will be held on Tuesday night.

Last Tuesday evening was Ladies' Night at the Masonic club room. There was a large attendance of the fair sex, who were accorded all the privileges of the club rooms and it is needless to say that all had a good time.

Messrs. J. L. Worth, F. L. Boggs, S. R. Miller, A. L. Rawlings, of Newark and N. M. Brown of Pataskala were in Columbus several days during the past week in attendance at the meeting of the Scottish Rite bodies, and took charge of the degrees from the fourth to the thirty-second.

of an ordinary review to mention in detail the acts of commission and omission that becloud the reputation of this legislature in the state and in the country at large. It is sufficient to say now that as a result of this nefarious record the shrewdest and most honest political observers in both parties look to the Democracy to revolutionize public affairs in this state in the very near future. If the people are not more callous than is generally believed this apprehension will be fulfilled.

VIGILANT WATCH

Why Boards of Health Are Necessary For the Public Safety.

A member of the board of health recently said: "You would be surprised to know the negligence and indifference that exists in regard to the first principles of sanitary laws and the public health. Some of the well-to-do people are often offenders in this respect."

"Consequently a vigilant watch is necessary to stamp out germ breeding spots, with their menace to the health of the community."

People show the same kind of neglect and indifference in regard to the care of their bodies but they have no board of health to warn them, even on the alert to drive out the impurities. They must be their own board of health for the care of their individual bodies.

With scrofula, the body is in a favorable condition for the growth of disease germs and microbes, the impurities in the blood, the cause of scrofula, affording the same opportunity for the development of other diseases as do the unhealthy spots for the suppression of which boards of health are organized.

Father John's Medicine cures scrofula, and all skin diseases by driving out the impurities, toning up the stomach and nervous system. It is free of alcohol or injurious drugs or narcotics. An eminent special prescribed this medicine for the late Rev. Fr. John O'Brien of Lowell, Mass., fifty years ago, by whom it derived its name.

It is a food medicine for the blood and nerves, and enables the organs of the body to properly perform their work. Taken after any exposure, it prevents colds, cures all throat and lung troubles.

Father John's Medicine sold in Newark by J. W. Collins & Son.

RAILROAD NOTES.

An Oriental Party.

One of the most distinguished oriental parties that has travelled over the B. & O. railroad for some time, was that which passed through the city Friday night en route from Chicago to Washington. The party consisted of Prince Pu Lun, a Chinese Mandarin and party, numbering eighteen people in all. The party was in charge of Mr. Wong Abogi, and travelled in the private Pullman car "Chanaba."

by local applications, as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure Deafness, and that is by constitutional remedies. Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian Tube. When this tube gets inflamed, you have a running sound or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed Deafness is the result, and unless the inflammation can be taken out and this tube restored to its normal condition, hearing will be destroyed forever; nine cases out of ten are caused by catarrh, which is nothing but an inflamed condition of the mucous surfaces. HUMOR

HE HAD NERVE.

How Dick Put the Question to Alice on a Wager.

The two young men were arguing fiercely.

"And I tell you it's a waste of good time for you to call on her and ask her to marry you," said Tom.

"That's just the way you look at it," replied Dick in a friendly spirit.

"It's a pretty good way, too," retorted Tom. "I overheard her tell Lucy she preferred medium sized men to either tall or short ones."

"You say that because you are medium sized?"

"And dark complexioned to light complexioned men?"

"That's because you're dark and I'm light."

"And ability of tongue rather than of the pen?"

"You're fabricating on the fact that you're a lawyer and I'm a newspaper reporter," responded Dick.

"Not at all," said Tom. "I'm merely quoting what she said."

"Well," remarked Dick thoughtfully, "I'll bet you a cigar, a hat, a dinner or a house that I can go to her and ask the matrimonial question and receive an affirmative answer to my question within two minutes of the time of asking."

Tom laughed. "Done for dinners for the entire wedding party."

So it was agreed. As to who should be out of pocket to the extent of dinner for an indefinite number was to be decided that evening.

Dick rang the doorbell at Alice's house, and when he entered he admitted also Tom, who hid behind a door in the parlor that he might hear plainly both question and answer.

Dick thought Alice never looked so bewitchingly beautiful and all that sort of thing. And he told her so.

"I've been wondering," said he after some time, "if I were to ask you to ask you, Alice, to become my wife if you'd refuse me. You would, wouldn't you?"

"Yes, indeed," quickly responded Alice. "You know I'm to marry Harry next month."

"So he told me yesterday when he asked me to be his best man," said Dick. "But by asking you the question that way I won a dinner for the whole crowd of us."

He went to the door and dragged Tom from his place of shelter.

"I asked her the question, as you heard," he told his friends, "and she said 'Yes.'"

Tom had heard it, but he didn't look as though he had—New York Tribune.

Up to Date Bath.

Much the worse for alcohol, a young fellow entered a Washington bath parlor early the other morning. He pushed the dents out of his hat, walked to the office counter with great confidence and announced that he wanted a bath.

"What sort of a bath?" the clerk asked as he pushed the register toward the unsteady customer.

"What kind yer got?"

"Oh, we can give you a Turkish bath."

"Had too many of them already. Can't yer give me somethin' new?"

"Yes; we can give you a medicated bath."

"I don't want no quacks workin' on me. No gold cure for Willie."

"Well, we can give you a Russian bath."

"Not if I know it. Just give me a Japanese bath. That's my ticket!"—Washington Times.

Inventive Genius.

"Yes, sir; this is a safety razor that gives you the same sort of a shave as you get at the barber shop," said the agent.

The prospective customer rather poohpoohed.

"But it does," persisted the agent. "See, here is a thingumajig that squirts lather into your eyes, and here is a small phonographic attachment that delivers an onion flavored oration while the razor is in use. Can you beat that?"—Judge.

Last month 5,599 rats were destroyed at the London docks, making a total of 273,819 since the work has been commenced.

THE ADMINISTRATION'S SPIRIT

Mr. Grosvenor, speaking in the House the other day, said that "we do not want to reform the tariff; we do not want to revise the tariff, and if we do we are going straight ahead when we get ready and we will do these things if we see fit to do so." Mr. Grosvenor merely gives voice to the spirit of the present administration. He is only spokesman for the Roosevelt idea and method. "We will do just as we please." That is the notice that is served upon the country.

POINT AT ISSUE

WHAT JAPAN WANTS OF KOREA AND WHAT RUSSIA DESIRES.

Homer B. Hurlburt in the May Century Writes on "Korea, the Bone of Contention."

The following is from Homer B. Hurlburt's "Korea the Bone of Contention" in the May Century:

What does Japan want of Korea and what does Russia want of her? The interest of these two powers in the peninsula are quite different. Japan demands that Korea shall have a clean and enlightened government which will lead the people to a peaceful development of the resources of the country. It demands a good monetary system, a good police system, a good system of taxation. All these things will benefit Japanese trade in Korea and at the same time will be of equal value to the Korean people themselves. These conditions are the only ones that will help Korea tide over the transition period and finally become a genuinely civilized power. Russia, on the other hand, cares nothing about reform in Korea. The stronger and the cleaner the government of Korea becomes, the greater obstacle she will be in the way of Russia's ambitions. It is not Korean trade or Korean development or Korean welfare that Russia wants, but Korea herself. Japan has not demanded a port in Korea which she can arm and in which she can intrench herself, but the whole Russian press is evidence that this is what Russia wants, and the whole trend of her policy in the far East during the last century confirms it.

The matter is summed up in the one statement that Japanese demands in Korea lie parallel with the interests of the Korean people, while Russian aspirations are directly opposed to them. Take one glaring instance. Japan secured a concession for building a railway from Fusan to Seoul. This will perhaps pay a fair dividend after years of work, but its value to Korea is beyond estimate. It opens up the whole interior of the country and quadruples the value of every foot of land within twenty miles of its line. A foreigner in Taikn wrote the other day that the coming of the Seoul-Fusan railway had already raised the price of property in that town three hundred per cent. although the road will not be in use for another year. Take on the other hand the Russian timber concession on the Yalu river. This was arranged secretly with a bribed foreign minister who divided with the government the proceeds of the deal. By this act there was put into the hands of Russia property to the value of at least fifty millions of dollars. The government of Korea received possibly a quarter of a million. These two franchises illustrate perfectly the attitude of the contestants.

T. B. FULTON, CASHIER

Peoples National Bank Secures Prominent Attorney for This Responsible Position--Mr. Fulton Has Already Begun His New Duties at the Peoples National Bank.

A special meeting of the directors of the Peoples National Bank was held on Friday afternoon, at which some important business was transacted, the most important being the selection of a cashier for the institution. For this position the unanimous choice of the directors was Mr. T. B. Fulton, senior member of the law firm of Fulton & Fulton.

The board was also officially notified of the extension of the charter of the bank for 20 years from May 12. During the first 20 years of its corporate existence the Peoples bank has maintained a high standing in financial circles and has at all times from the personnel of the directors and their safe, conservative business methods inspired the full confidence of the public and the depositors and patrons of the bank.

At present there is not an institution in Newark on a more solid and sure foundation of financial wisdom and stability than the Peoples bank. At present its capital is $150,000, with surplus and undivided profits aggregating half that sum. The directors are men of approved sound judgment in financial and banking affairs as can be seen at a glance over the following list of directors: Benjamin Franklin, W. L. Prout, A. F. Crayton, E. M. Baughey, M. Q. Baker, W. W. Wehrle and George W. Havens. The officers are:

President, Benjamin Franklin.
Vice President, E. M. Baughey.
Cashier, T. B. Fulton.
Asst. Cashier, C. M. Thompson.

The new cashier took full charge on Saturday morning and will devote his entire time to the duties of the position. He was born in Licking county and most of his life has been spent in and about Newark, so that there are few men better known than he. For absolute integrity, sound judgment, and ability of a high order Mr. Fulton stands as high as any man in the community. He has for years been associated with the members of the Licking county bar, and during that time has enjoyed the entire confidence and respect that a man of ability and fair dealing always commands from his peers.

MUSIC AND THE DRAMA

Never in the history of musical entertainments in Granville has there been one which created such a general furor of favorable comment among musicians as that given on Wednesday night in Recital hall by Miss Augusta Cottow, a pianist of most brilliant powers.

This young woman was born in California 22 years ago, and was known as a child prodigy, showing remarkable musical intuition when scarcely out of babyhood. This talent was carefully nurtured and trained, and when 15 years of age she went to Leipzig, Germany, where she studied for three or four years under Ferruccio Busoni, the eminent Italian teacher, and made her first tour of America last year.

Miss Cottow's mother accompanies her daughter, and next summer they expect to seek a secluded spot in the New Hampshire hills where they will take several months' rest and recuperation.

The appearance of this young artist in Granville has a special interest for several reasons. Prof. and Mrs. Willis Chamberlain, several years ago, while abroad, met Miss Cottow, and during her stay in Granville was their guest, remaining in the village from Wednesday until Sunday. She and her mother will leave for Oxford Sunday, where she appears next week, and they will then go to St. Louis.

Another interesting feature of her visit to Granville is the fact that Mrs. Charles B. White of that place, is also a pupil of Busoni, and the renewal of an acquaintance between the two women was indeed pleasant to both.

Miss Cottow is a very charming woman as well as a great artist. Her technique is said by good musical judges to be almost absolute perfection, and her concert will remain an event in musical circles to be long remembered.

The concert by Miss Marie Nichols, the great Boston artist, whose violin playing has received the highest comment of the European press, will be given at Taylor hall, Y. M. C. A. next Friday evening, April 29. This recital will assemble the most fashionable and intellectual audience in Newark from present indications. Miss Amy G. McDowell of Columbus, O., will be the pianist.

LITTLE BO-PEEP

A Charming Operatta by 200 Newark Public School Pupils at the Auditorium April 29-30

"Little Bo-Peep," a beautiful operatta, will be given at the Auditorium on April 29 and 30 by 200 of Newark's most talented public school pupils for the benefit of a supplementary music fund. Of a former production of this opera under Prof. Yeardley's direction the Parkersburg Sentinel says:

"The operatta Little Bo-Peep, which was sung by children at the Auditorium last night, was a decided novelty, besides being one of the most pleasing affairs of the season. It was undoubtedly the most successful children's play ever given in this city. The Auditorium was crowded to the doors, many people standing during the entire performance. The operetta itself is a pleasing little drama in song and pantomime, admirably adapted to being enacted by children, and it was performed from beginning to end without a hitch. Besides the principal characters, a chorus of children numbering nearly 200 made a most effective setting to the play, and rendered the cho-uses of the operetta with splendid effect. They were all quaintly costumed as peasant lads and lasses, with dainty caps and bright colored dresses. Some of the chorus music was quite difficult and was rendered in two parts (soprano and alto) with surprising accuracy. The principal characters were sung by children who possess the best voices in the public schools, and they played their parts with an ease and lack of self consciousness that would have been creditable in much older and more experienced performers. The entire performance was a most flattering success, and reflects great credit upon the skill and perseverance of Prof. Yeardley, who originated the idea of the entertainment and carried it so successfully to a close."

It is to be hoped the Newark people will not miss hearing the renowned violinist, Miss Nichols and Miss Amy I. McDowell, pianist, at Taylor Hall, Friday evening, April 29. It

Boy Invested $50 Instead of $10 In an Advertisement

In an accidental way D. Crawford, who established in St. Louis what is now the great department store of D. Crawford & Co., became a firm believer in heavy and judicious advertising. At the close of the civil war Mr. Crawford was doing business in a small and unpretentious store at the corner of Broadway and Franklin avenue. He had never advertised, but he bought at a bargain 10,000 army blankets, and those things just then were in big demand. It suddenly occurred to him that he would put an advertisement in the Missouri Republican, which was then by long odds the leading newspaper of the city. His idea was to expend not more than $10. His change was short, and when he sent a boy to the office with the advertisement he gave him a fifty dollar bill and told him to put in $10 worth of advertising and bring the change back to the store. The ad. had but a few words in it. It simply read, "Ten thousand army blankets for sale very cheap at D. Crawford & Co.'s, Fifth street and Franklin avenue," for Broadway was then called Fifth street.

The boy misunderstood his boss and invested the entire amount. Mr. Crawford went home, leaving his partner at the store. The latter did not understand the directions, and shortly afterward he went home. So did the boy.

When Mr. Crawford picked up his paper the next morning and saw such a big announcement he was mad through and through and hurried off to the store to haul that kid over the coals. But he didn't. The store was packed with people, and they were coming in streams after those blankets. He smiled all over, ransacked the country for more thousands of blankets and kept increasing his advertising space until he soon became one of the heaviest advertisers in all the western country. Within a few years he was on the high road to success and in a quarter of a century was rated a millionaire, with an enormous department store.--New York Commercial.

Greatest Force In the Business World

That man has the key of the situation who realizes the fact that advertising is the greatest force in the business world today. Advertising is one of the great arms of the sales department. The great army of traveling salesmen is the other arm. When these two learn to work together success is sure. Advertising has lifted business to a higher plane than any other force. The department stores have entered into competition, and each has improved its service that it may have a more compelling story to tell. Many practical things hitherto unknown have become everyday necessities in our homes because advertising brought them into notice. The increase of package food products is the direct result of advertising. Uneeda Biscuit was prepared simply to have something to advertise—a peg to hang the other products of the National Biscuit company on. It was successful because it filled a long felt want of the public. The conduct of a great business today makes as great demand on the fearlessness and originality of its leaders as that of any other profession. The thinkers of today find in advertising a field of action far beyond anything in the past. There are more worlds to conquer. A manufacturer who has a "good thing" may have an entire nation for his patron if only he is willing to show that he may reap, to scatter abroad that he may gather.—Ernest Elmo Calkins in Judicious Advertising.

How to Outstrip Competition.

Aggression in advertising proves that advertising pays. Competition makes aggression, and aggression produces success. A certain magazine representative said, "The only way to 'get from under' the dominating influence of competition is to outadvertise it." This spirit of aggression may not necessarily be the result of one's own success in the past; it may come through the knowledge of some one else's success in his own or some other line of business, by confidence in the future and belief in the old saying that "nothing succeeds like success."—Mahin's Magazine.

What Advertising Did.

The advertising of their label by the United Garment Workers of America has increased the demand for union made garments so rapidly that in the past year there were sent out 34,500,000 labels for all kinds of garments, says the Outlook. This is an increase in one year of 11,000,000 labels, or just about the period that the union's cards have been running in street cars and its ads. in the leading magazines.—Printers' Ink.

Their Springtime Employment.

"Whar's little Jim, at?"
"Ridin' a alligator 'cross the mill pond."
"An' whar's Susan?"
"Stringin' rattlesnake rattles ter make a necklace she kin go to ther picnic in."—Atlanta Constitution.

Thousands of hams are sent into Dublin from America, and after being branded with the Irish mark they are exported from Cork and Waterford to England, where they are sold as Irish hams at a high price.

Peculiar To Itself

In what it is and what it does—containing the best blood-purifying, alterative and tonic substances and effecting the most radical and permanent cures of all humors and all eruptions, relieving weak, tired, languid feelings, and building up the whole system—is true only of Hood's Sarsaparilla

No other medicine acts like it; no other medicine has done so much real, substantial good, no other medicine has restored health and strength at so little cost. "I was troubled with scrofula and came near losing my eyesight. For four months I could not see to do anything. After taking two bottles of Hood's Sarsaparilla I could see to walk, and when I had taken eight bottles I could see as well as ever."—STACE A. BAILEY, Rox. Withers, N. C. CIRCUS DAY NEAR Stupendous Spectacle Involving 1200 Characters Added to Ringling Brothers Big Shows.

Ringling Brothers may always be depended upon for some towering and arousing novelty, and this year it offers a new, original and tremendous dramatic spectacle, involving a greater outlay of money than ever before invested in a circus attraction. It is named Jerusalem and the Crusaders, and thrillingly depicts this classic story of early Christian struggle. There are 1,200 characters in the cast, a ballet of 300, and a singing chorus of 200. The incidental music is supplied by the largest portable grand organ ever built, and a band of 50 instruments. 2,000 costumes of ancient pattern and radiant splendor, glittering implements of a barbaric age, decorative scenery of massive proportion, imperial jewels and varied effects of utility and ornamentable are enthralling factors in the magnificent spectacle. This illuminated story of the Crusaders is the most gigantic conception of circus enterprise in the history of the world. The pick and flower of riding, acrobatic, aerbiastic, equilibristic, juggling, gymnastic and athletic artists, each of distinction in Europe and America, and many never seen in this country before, are in the ring program. Captain Webb's performing seals, two groups acting on two stages at the same time, are a novelty in animal training hardly believable and never successfully accomplished before.

The grand parade on the morning of show day is this year of surpassing splendor, variety of feature and length, and that is making a promise of what looks like the impossible, for the Ringling Brothers always excel in this matter of street pageant, and last season's display was a nine-day wonder, making the parades of all other shows look like a stale and profitless effort. Numbered reserved seats may be secured on the date of exhibition and without extra charge at R. W. Smith's Drug Store.

John A. Prior will serve one of the best hot roasts of the season tonight.

TEACHERS

Met Saturday at High School Chapel—Senator L. B. Houck of Mt Vernon, Speaks.

The regular monthly meeting of the Licking County Teachers Association was held at the High School chapel, in this city, Saturday, with two sessions, morning and afternoon. There was a large attendance of teachers from all over the country, and the following interesting program was carried out:

MORNING SESSION.

Invocation.
Co-ordination and Correlation, Prof. E. P. Childs, Newark.
Manual Training, Mrs. Sininger, Newark.

Round Table.
AFTERNOON SESSION.
Address, Superintendent F. M. Townsend, Newark.

TWO NEW PARISHES

About to be Established in Newark by Rev. B. M. O'Boylan--Fr. Watterson Appointed to East Newark--Fr. Fitzpatrick Leaves--Fine New Buildings to Be Erected.

With the approbation of Rt. Rev. James Hartley, the Bishop of Columbus, Very Rev. B. M. O'Boylan is about to establish two new parishes in this city.

Fine new buildings are to be erected in both East and West Newark, and each of the new parishes will be equipped with modern chapels and schools.

Already Father Charles H. A. Watterson has been appointed to East Newark, and will be Father O'Boylan's assistant until the new buildings are erected.

Father Fitzpatrick, who, for eighteen months has been assistant rector at St. Francis de Sales church, has been assigned to Temperanceville, Belmont county, and will shortly leave for his new field.

The foregoing important announcement was made Saturday morning by Father O'Boylan, who, when asked as to further details of the establishment of the two new parishes, said that he is not as yet in position to announce the location of either the East or West End parishes but hopes to be able to do so soon.

Plans have been prepared for the East Newark buildings, which are to carry an expense of about $40,000. The West End structure will be equally imposing, the building being erected with pressed brick and stone trimmings.

It has been planned to begin work very soon on the combination chapel and school buildings in East Newark to be followed later by the erection of a home for the sisters, who will teach in the schools. Until this latter building is erected the sisters will live in the Greenville street home.

Father O'Boylan says he has a fine location for the West End buildings, and has two or three sites in East Newark in view but will make a definite announcement later.

Father Watterson, who comes to Newark shortly, is a brilliant young man, of about 33 years of age. He is a nephew of the late Bishop Watterson, and a cousin of Henry Watterson, the distinguished Louisville editor. Father Watterson was educated at Emmettsburg, Md., finished his course of study under Sulpicians at Baltimore. After he was ordained, Father Watterson went to the Catholic University at Washington, for a post-graduate course of study. For several years he was chancellor of the diocese under Bishop Watterson, and was appointed rector of St. Joseph's Cathedral at Columbus. For four years Father Watterson has been located at Cambridge.

An equally able pastor will be secured for Father O'Boylan for the West End parish.

Father O'Boylan is to be congratulated for the step he has taken. He has ever been alive to the interests of his church and the community and he recognizes the fact that the tremendous growth of Newark now warrants the establishment of additional parishes for the accommodation of members of the Catholic church and the children who are sent to the parochial schools.

The buildings to be erected will be an ornament to the city and will testify to the substantial progress of this thriving city.

EARLY DAYS OF LICKING COUNTY

Licking county was erected from Fairfield county on March 1, 1805, and named from its principal stream, called by the whites, Licking, by the Indians "Pataskala." Its area is about 630 square miles. The country was first settled shortly after Wayne's treaty of 1795 by John Ratliff and Ellis Hughes, in some old Indian cornfield, about five miles below Newark, on the Licking. These men were from Western Virginia. They lived mainly by hunting, raising, however, a little corn, the cultivation of which was left, in a great measure, to their wives.

Hughes had been bred in the hotbed of Indian warfare. The Indians having at an early day, murdered a young woman to whom he was attached, and subsequently his father, the return of peace did not mitigate his hatred of the race. One night in April, 1800, two Indians stole horses of Ratliff from a little enclosure near their cabins. Missing them in the morning they started off well armed, in pursuit, accompanied by a man named Bland. They followed their trail in a northern direction all day, and at night camped in the woods. At the gray of dawn they came upon the Indians who were asleep and unconscious of danger. Concealing themselves behind the trees, they waited until the Indians had awakened and were commencing preparations for their journey. They drew up their rifles to shoot, and just at that moment one of the Indians discovered them and instinctively clasp his hand to his breast, as if to ward off the fatal ball, exclaimed in tones of fright, "Me had Indian—me no do so more." The appeal was in vain, the smoke curled from the glistening barrels the report rang in the morning air and the poor Indians fell dead. The white men returned to their cabins with the horses and "plunder" taken from the Indians, and swore mutual secrecy for this violation of the law.

One evening, some time after, Hughes was quietly sitting in his cabin when he was startled by the entrance of two powerful and well armed savages. Concealing his emotions he gave them a welcome and offered them seats. His wife, a muscular, squaw-like female, stepped aside and privately sort for Ratliff, whose cabin was near. Presently Ratliff, who had made a detour, entered with his rifle from an opposite direction, as if he had been out hunting. He told Hughes tell the with the Indians about the murder. Hughes had his tomahawk and scalping knife, as was his custom, in a belt around his person, but his rifle hung from the cabin wall, which he deemed it imprudent to obtain. There all the long night sat the parties, mutually fearing each other and neither summoning sufficient courage to stir. When morning dawned the Indians left, shaking hands and bidding farewell, but in their retreat were very cautious not to be shot in ambush by the hardy borderers.

Hughes died near Utica this county, in March, 1845, at an advanced age. His early life had been one of much adventure. He was, it is supposed, the last survivor of the bloody battle of Point Pleasant. He was buried with military honors and other demonstrations of respect.

Robbed the Grave.

A startling incident is narrated by John Oliver of Philadelphia, as follows: "I was in an awful condition. My skin was almost yellow, eyes sunken, tongue coated, pain continually in back and sides, no appetite, growing weaker day by day. Three physicians had given me up. Then I was advised to use Electric Bitters; to my great joy the first bottle made a decided improvement. I continued their use for three weeks, and am now a well man. I know they robbed the grave of another victim." No one should fail to try them. Only 50 cents, guaranteed, at Hall's drug store.

Words and Deeds.

"What people want is deeds, not words," said the patriotic citizen. "That's right," answered Senator Sorghum. "And without impropriety I may say that I have accumulated deeds for some of the best real estate in our town."—Washington Star.

It is said that of all colors violet is the one most stimulating to the eye coats and that the electric light, and more especially that given out by the large lamps used in many public places, is rich in violet rays. It is claimed violet dresses and draperies are responsible for many eye "crazes," and for not a few of the skin troubles about which the dermatologist is frequently consulted.

Here's Hope for the Sick!

If you knew absolutely beyond the faintest shadow of a doubt that our prescription—the remedy held out to you by a friendly hand—would restore you to health and happiness, you would take it, wouldn't you, and thank us for the offer?

Well, it WILL cure you, no matter how long you have been sick, or how serious your present condition may be, provided it is not such as to require surgical treatment. Will you accept our mere word for this? Possibly not. But we owe it to you, and every sick one, to make a simple statement of the truth. The responsibility will not rest upon us, then, if you neglect the means of certain cure offered you in our great medical discovery.

VITONA

"The New Way to Health"

This wonderful prescription—it is not a mere patent medicine—has been used with marvellous success in hundreds of cases by a physician in his private practice. It contains a secret ingredient discovered by a German chemist, from whom we have purchased the American rights. This chemical acts directly on the blood, cleansing it of all impurities, destroying the germs and thereby restoring health to all the vital organs which depend upon the condition of the blood.

"Vitona" is the only medicinal agent which will protect the Liver, Stomach and Kidneys from the ravages of disease. When these organs are diseased it is always a sign of some disorder in the blood. Thousands of people have blood disease and don't know it. They think the ailment is local to the organs affected and treat them instead of getting at the real seat of the disease and eradicating it completely by means of Vitona. Here are symptoms of blood trouble:

Some Dangerous Symptoms:

Headache, Indigestion, Coated Tongue, Backache, Exhaustion, Poor Appetite, Sallow Complexion, Biliousness, Constipation or Sleeplessness.

Don't Delay! Act!

If you have a single one of these symptoms, it is a sign that your blood needs treatment, and you should not delay an hour, but begin using "Vitona" at once. You can not afford to take any chances of letting your condition terminate fatally. You can be saved and restored to perfect health by means of this great remedy and you owe it to yourself, your family and friends to take prompt steps to put yourself at once in the way to recovery. Price of Vitona is $1.00. Written guarantee given with each bottle.

WEEK'S Society and Club EVENTS

Miss Mary Haight will entertain the members of her Sunday school class next Saturday from two till four.

Mrs. Attia M. Smith was pleasantly surprised at her home on North Fourth street by a number of her relatives and friends on Thursday evening and a most delightful time was had. Those present were Mr. and Mrs. Leroy Robinson and grandson, Harry, Mrs. Dr. Day, Mrs. John Lake and son, Willis, and Misses Ada Day and Anna Robinson. Those out of town were Mr. and Mrs. S. S. Robinson of Granville.

The Misses Lottie Dillon and Lucy Johnson charmingly entertained a merry party of friends at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Marple on Elmwood avenue, Tuesday evening. A variety of entertainment was afforded, music being the chief feature. The Aerial Quartet furnished several numbers which were highly appreciated and applauded, as was also the music on the piano, mandolin and guitar.

A very pretty reception was given Tuesday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. B. F. Bowers on Maholm street in honor of their son and wife. Music and a good social time was enjoyed by all. Dainty refreshments were served at an early hour after which the guests were highly entertained by Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Sparks, with their graphophone. At a late hour the guests departed, wishing the young married couple a long life of joy and happiness.

The Albertas and their friends gave a delightful return dance to the Atreallas Friday evening at Assembly Hall. Marsh's orchestra furnished the music. The chaperones were Mrs. Latimer, Mrs. Dave Black, Mrs. O. C. Jones, and Mrs. Will Davis.

Among the merry dancers were Misses Kathryn Vance, Edith Upson, Helen Jones, Martha Schindler, Mabel Traxler, Cassie Hillier, Stella Howard, Jessie King, Hazel Thomas, Lois Upson, Roxana Allen, Ethel Drilhart, Francis Priest, Ruby Jones, Bertha Fulton, Margaret Arnold, Marian Hatch, Ida Moore, Amy Franklin, Justina Gleichauf, Verona Martin, Ruth Hatch, Lulu May Barrick, Edna Maylone, Cora Metz, Addie Jones, Lina Schaffer, Bessie Reid, Musa Peall, Lillian Kammerer, Maude Pigg, Margaret Nichols, Mabel Moore, Maud Lida, Marguerite Hull, Ruth Allen, Beatrice Browne, Bertha Latimer, Winnie Fulton, Myrtle Miller.

Messrs. Fred Goodwin, Ed. McCutcheon, Louis Daerr, Harold Franklin, Carl Ashe, Frank O'Bannon, Leonard Kelley, Verne Priest, George Harrington, Schaffer, Yost, Walter Lippincott, Nelson Pierson, Harry Browne, Paul Franklin, Albert Quack, Eddie Davis, Frank McQueen, Albert Jones, Clyde Crilly, Clarence Jones, Wilfred Owens, Homer Howard, Frank Dounce, Walter Davis, Merrill Montgomery, Lee Moore, Harry Norgard, Allen Jones, Sherman Baggis, Walter Upson, Charlie Matthews, Harry Ball, Arthur Haines, Charlie Lindsay, Jerome Ferguson, Harold Brennan, Will Blood, Will O'Bannon, Walter Holman, Howard Droms, Harry Mackenzie, Harry Spicer, Mr. and Mrs. Louis Blair, Mrs. Montgomery, Misses Hecox, Williams and Morrison, Messrs. Yearley and Humbarrey of Columbus, Miss Rosalie Heisey, Messrs. McKibben, Barton, Moore, Pond, Hislop and Morrow of Granville.

Misses Lillian and Anna Mehl very pleasantly entertained a number of their friends Friday evening at their beautiful home on West Main street. Games were the feature of the evening and a delightful social time enjoyed by all. Those present were Misses Helen Abbott, Bertha King, Euelah Hansberger, Ada Day, Anna Robinson, Irene Bouden, Helen Eisey, Helen McVey and Lillian and Anna Mehl.

Prominent among the pleasant social affairs of the week was the surprise party given by Mrs. Ellis and Mr. Miller in honor of Mrs. Miller's birthday, at the home of her mother, Mrs. Ellis, on Pataskala street. There were between fifty and sixty guests present, and the evening's entertainment was progressive and good. The prizes were won by Miss Minnie Chilcote and Mr. Odenthal. The consolation prizes were awarded to Mrs. Frank Ashman of Columbus, and Mr. Stanley Miller.

Mr. Daniel Moriarity, the well known Baltimore and Ohio telegraph operator of this city, and Miss Mahala Litten were married on Thursday morning. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. Father D. M. O'Boylan, of the St. Francis de Sales church, at his residence at 10 o'clock, the attendants being Miss Mabel Ryan and Mr. Eugene McCarthy. The marriage was a very quiet affair, only the immediate families of the contracting parties being in attendance. At the conclusion of the ceremony the wedding party repaired to the home of Mr. McNeely, in the North End, where an elegant wedding breakfast was served. Mr. and Mrs. Moriarity left for Columbus for a short visit. They will make their future home in this city. They have the best wishes of all their friends.

Mrs. C. E. Van Buren and Miss Van Buren entertained the San Toys on Tuesday with a six o'clock dinner in honor of their guest, Miss Margaret Arnold of Vicksburg, Miss. Dinner was served at two tables, presided over by Miss Arnold and Miss Lillian Kammerer. Those present were Miss Bertha Latimer, Miss Marian Hatch, Miss Helen Weiant, Miss Marian Ogden, Miss Lillian Kammerer, Miss Adelle Jones, Miss Bertha Fulton, Miss Charlotte Neal and Miss Helen Jones, Messrs. Clarence Jones, Harry Ball, Frank Goodwin, Warren Sater, George Unson, Will Blood, Albert Stuck, Lee Moore, Ed Davis, and Frank Dounce. After dinner the evening was spent with various games and music. Miss Arnold returns next week to her home, after spending the winter with her aunt and uncle, Mr. and Mrs. Van Buren.

Invitations are out for the wedding of Lieut. Oliver H. Dockery, Jr., of the Third U. S. I., and Miss Emma Jenkins Heisey, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Heisey. The ceremony is to take place at 8 o'clock on the evening of May 11th at Trinity Episcopal church.

The employees of the Powers-Miller store gave a surprise party on Mr. and Mrs. L. C. Applegate at their new home on Eleventh street on Wednesday evening. The evening was spent in playing cards and flinch, and elegant refreshments were served. On behalf of the employees of the store, Mr. Henry Link presented Mr. and Mrs. Applegate with a handsome leather rocker. Those present were Misses Bessie Lee, Edna Alvard, Zoa Shipley, Stella Porter, Rose Elchorn, Wilcox Devine, Zoa Bodle, Pose Nethers, Anna Evans, Beulah Shuler, Lena Rugg, Bessie Campbell, Bertha Erner, Louise Bruner, Ida German, Helen Banton, and Messrs. Henry Link, Henry Gerlach, Wm. Gerlach, Leo Bader, Alva Ryan, David Cunningham, Walter Early, Paul Kerr, Willard Embrey, Edward Banton and Willey Berger.

The Tuesday Afternoon Euchre club was entertained this week by Miss May Hale. The club prizes were won by Mrs. Ed. Browne and Miss Nina Webb. The visitors' prizes were won by Mrs. Oren King and Mrs. Althool.

The Daughters of the American Revolution were entertained Friday afternoon by Mrs. Walter Symons. There was a large attendance, and the afternoon subject was Bunker Hill. Mrs. Martha Wright read a paper, and Miss McChene gave a reading. Questions were passed, the answers to which related to Bunker Hill.

The Woman's Home and Foreign Missionary Society of the First M. E. church met on Thursday afternoon with Mrs. Whitcomb. The following program was given:

Work on the Frontier.
Devotional, Mrs. Conrad.
Reports and Business.
A Home School in New Mexico as Seen by a Presiding Elder's Wife, Mrs. May.

THE "KATY" TO THE FRONT.
Will Reserve Rooms for World's Fair Visitors.

The passenger department of the Missouri, Kansas and Texas railway has made a move of much interest and value to its patrons who desire to visit St. Louis during the World's Fair. It has established a bureau to supply the wants of visitors in the way of rooming accommodations. It has secured option to several thousand furnished rooms in St. Louis hotels and first-class private residences. All are inspected by a representative of the bureau. None but clean, first-class rooms in most desirable districts are accepted.

The M. K. & T. ticket agent at each city and station on its line are prepared to secure reservations in advance. "Katy" ticket agents will explain the plan. This arrangement no doubt will prove popular.

Those desiring accommodations should apply as far in advance as possible, as it will be difficult to reserve rooms on short notice.

An office of the bureau will be maintained near the Union station, St. Louis, at which quarters an efficient corps of clerks and uniformed messengers will be on hand to direct visitors to their rooms. The bureau will be prepared to furnish guides, chaperones, messengers, also cabs and automobiles to carry visitors to their quarters and express service for the transfer of baggage at reasonable rates. This will be recognized at once to be of special value to strangers and ladies without escorts.

"Katy's" ticket agents will be glad to give full information or you may write to George Morton, General Passenger and Ticket Agent, M. K. & T. Ry., St. Louis.

BECOMING A MOTHER

Is an ordeal which all women approach with indescribable fear, for nothing compares with the pain and horror of child-birth. The thought of the suffering and danger in store for her, robs the expectant mother of all pleasant anticipations of the coming event, and casts over her a shadow of gloom which cannot be shaken off. Thousands of women have found that the use of Mother's Friend during pregnancy robs confinement of all pain and danger, and insures safety to life of mother and child. This scientific liniment is a god-send to all women at the time of their most critical trial. Not only does Mother's Friend carry women safely through the perils of child-birth, but its use gently prepares the system for the coming event, prevents "morning sickness," and other discomforts of this period. Sold by all druggists at $1.00 per bottle. Book containing valuable information free.

WINE of CARDUI

Sure Relief for Women.

No. 18 Central Ave. Hot Springs, Ark., April 30, 1903.

Eighteen months ago I was so completely run down that my body ached from head to foot. My back seemed to break in two and I suffered intense pain in the lower abdomen. I could not afford to lay off and take a rest, and no medicine helped me any.

A friend told me how much Wine of Cardui built her up and advised me by all means to take it. The day I took the first dose the recovery of my health began. It was nearly three months before I was entirely cured, but at the end of that time I was in better health than I had been for seven years.

I look on Wine of Cardui as the most blessed medicine that a woman could possibly take when she feels sick and tired of life.

Anna Nelson
ORATOR, WEDNESDAY CHAUTAUQU CLUB.

Mrs. Nelson describes the condition of thousands of women. That condition comes by slow stages. Usually the important function of menstruation is at first slightly irregular. Then comes the painful periods. Bearing-down pains and ovarian inflammation follow. Finally the nervous system gives way and the whole system has become affected and the pains rack the body from head to foot.

Wine of Cardui is a menstrual regulator of established reputation. No woman who takes it suffers as Mrs. Nelson suffered. It gives speedy and complete relief from the torturing menstrual agonies which are making so many women invalids today. Do not let yourself come to the pitiable condition Mrs. Nelson describes.

Secure a bottle of Wine of Cardui from your druggist today and begin treatment immediately.

Whiskey and Beer Habit

PERMANENTLY CURED BY

"ORRINE,"

ABSOLUTELY SAFE, SURE AND HARMLESS.

Physicians pronounce drunkenness a disease of the nervous system, creating a morbid craving for a stimulant. Continued indulgence in whiskey, beer or wine eats away the stomach lining and stiffens the digestive organs, thus destroying the digestion and raising the health. No "will power" can heal the inflamed stomach membranes.

"ORRINE," permanently removes the craving for liquor by acting directly on the affected nerves, restoring the stomach and digestive organs to normal conditions, improving the appetite and restoring the health. Can be given secretly if desired.

Cure Effect or Money Refunded.

Ask your druggist when you know what he thinks of ORRINE; he will endorse our statements as truthful in every respect. If ORRINE fails to cure we will refund you every penny paid for it as cheerfully as we took it.

No Sanitarium Treatment or Publicity!
No Absence from home or loss of time!

Mothers, wives and sisters, you cannot cure those who are afflicted with this most terrible of all diseases by your fervent prayers, or eyes red with tears, nor by your hope that they may stop drinking. It can be done only with ORRINE. You have the remedy—will you use it? If you desire to cure without the knowledge of the patient, buy ORRINE No. 1. If the patient desires to be cured of his own free will, buy ORRINE No. 2. Full directions found in each package. Price $1 per box.

We will gladly furnish a treatment free of cost to any physician to demonstrate that Orrine is a positive specific for drunkenness.

YANKEES OF THE SOUTH.

The Argentine Republic is Energetic and Progressive.

Cold winds come from the south, and winter is in July; otherwise the Argentine Republic is like Yankee land.

The Parana, the chief river, is far larger than our Mississippi; its annual flow of water is double that of the Ganges, three times that of the St. Lawrence, five times that of the Nile.

Argentina has the longest railway tangent (straight line) in the world, 180 miles. Its wheat plains are like those of our west. The climate is similar.

Argentina's population grows 40 per cent in ten years, the United States 20 per cent, Germany 16 per cent. Of the 2,000,000 of immigrants received in Argentina in forty years more than half have been Italian.

In 1867 there were but 355 miles of railway in Argentina; in 1900 there were 10,601 miles, some 12 per cent belonging to the government. Argentina is ninth among the nations in railway mileage.

Argentina has 120,000,000 sheep as against the 62,000,000 in the United States.

All Argentina suffered from the Baring crash in 1890, but recovery is now complete. Imports during 1899 were $117,000,000 and exports $185,000,000. From the United States came but $15,000,000 of the imports, and only $8,000,000 of exports were to this country.

Montevideo is in area the largest city in the world—three times the size of New York. Buenos Ayres, growing faster than New York, London or Berlin, is the biggest city in the world south of Philadelphia, except possibly the Chinese cities. It will reach the million mark in 1900.

Argentina is building one of the finest dry docks in the world, a model of which will probably be seen at St. Louis.

There is energy in South America—if you go far enough south.—New York World.

No Snow, but Sledding All the Year.

"The island of Madeira is one of the most interesting portions of the globe," said a traveler. "Little has been said and less written about the primeval customs of the people and the quaint manners that still exist. I was in Funchal, the capital city, recently, and the English are beginning to frequent the island in large numbers. There are no horses on the island, and the natives employ no wheeled vehicles. All the moving about is done on sleds drawn by bulls. The runners are greased to make them glide easily over the pebble highways. Back of this city is a mountain, and a cog railroad runs to its top. The descent is made in sleds a distance of two miles to the city, and guides run the entire distance, guiding the sleds with ropes."—Louisville Courier-Journal.

A Long Name.

"Yes," remarked the Russian soldier proudly, "I intend to inscribe my name in large letters on the roll of immortal fame, though I die in the attempt."

The Japan sympathizer rubbed his chin thoughtfully.

"What is that roll made of?" he asked—"rubber? Or will you do it in installments?"—Cincinnati Times-Star.

Congratulating Himself.

"Dere's one ting I can congratulate myself on," said Meandering Mike.

"What's dat?" inquired Flooding Pete.

"By never earnin' any money in de first place I avoids havin' any cause to reproach meself fur spendin' it foolish."—Washington Star.

Something of a Sameness.

Dick—Bingle is the right sort of man to run a newspaper for profit.

Wick—What's he done now?

Dick—He ran the same picture of a Russian battleship four times with a different name under it, and nobody could notice the difference.—Cleveland Plain Dealer.

The Situation.

Mrs. Coppervane—The fact is I'm in some doubt.

Her Maid—Don't you know what to say, ma'am?

Mrs. Coppervane—Yes, but I don't know how to spell it.—Puck.

Oldest Patent Medicine.

In a strict sense the oldest patent medicine was one patented by Timothy Byfield Oct. 22, 1711 (No. 388), for "a new and most useful chemical preparation and medicine, publicly known by the name of his 'sal oleum volatile,' which by abundant experience hath been found very helpful and beneficial as well for uses medicinal as others and will very much tend to the public use and benefit of all our subjects." The ingredients of this medicine are not named.

The next patent medicine is No. 390, April 3, 1712, granted to Richard Stoughton, for "a new and most useful restorative cordial and medicine, known by the name of 'Stoughton's elixir magnum stomachicum,' or 'the great cordial elixir,' otherwise called the stomachic tincture, or bitter drops."

After a break of ten years a patent was granted to Robert Eaton on April 18, 1722, for a "new stiptick medicine."

RIDE OVER COUNTRY ROAD IN MILLS' AUTO.

Fast Time Made Between Newark and Hanover by Advocate Man Friday Afternoon.

Sitting in the cab of a locomotive as it dashes along at a speed of 30 miles an hour is a sensation that the novice never forgets. The blood tingles through his veins and his entire nature feels exhilarated with pleasurable excitement. The locomotive runs along on smooth steel rails and the driver in the cab sways gently with the movement of his ponderous machine. The same speed maintained in a gasoline automobile, dashing along country roads, full of ruts and curves, is an entirely different experience, and to it is added the spice of hazard. A reporter for the Advocate on Friday afternoon took a ride from Newark to Hanover and then six miles northeast, that he will remember for some time to come. Mrs. Louis Walcott had committed suicide at her home on Friday morning, and Coroner Legge was notified at noon. He in turn told Mr. James Mills, the automobile dealer, who agreed to take him to the scene of the suicide.

With the Advocate man, and Coroner Mr. Mills left the store at 12:30 o'clock and going out East Main street it was seen that Mr. Mills was going for a time record. He is an expert and fearless chauffeur, and as he was seen to adjust his cap, reset his "goggles," and bend over the steering wheel, the machine, a two seated Cadillac tourist car, seemed to literally fly through space. As he struck rough places in the road he would caution the doctor and reporter to "hold on," but seldom did he reduce his speed. As the big machine raced along farm stock took one look and madly galloped in another direction as if to get away from some destroying agency. People came to windows and stood in yards looking in open eyed wonderment at the fearless chauffeur and his great machine. In 23 minutes from the time the trio left Newark the machine was stopped at the principal store in Hanover. Inquiring as to the location of the Walcott house, the journey was again taken up, and for six miles the car was never stopped. This stretch of road was in poor shape and very hilly, and nearly a mile from the scene of the suicide became impassable for the auto, so the party walked. After holding an inquest, the run to Newark began. After leaving Hanover the time was taken and the auto covered eight miles and three-eighths in exactly 21 minutes.

This stretch of road was in poor shape and very hilly, and nearly a mile from the scene of the suicide became impassable for the auto, so the party walked. After holding an inquest, the run to Newark began. After leaving Hanover the time was taken and the auto covered eight miles and three-eighths in exactly 21 minutes.

With the Advocate man, and Coroner Mr. Mills left the store at 12:30 o'clock and going out East Main street it was seen that Mr. Mills was going for a time record. He is an expert and fearless chauffeur, and as he was seen to adjust his cap, reset his "goggles," and bend over the steering wheel, the machine, a two seated Cadillac tourist car, seemed to literally fly through space. As he struck rough places in the road he would caution the doctor and reporter to "hold on," but seldom did he reduce his speed. As the big machine raced along farm stock took one look and madly galloped in another direction as if to get away from some destroying agency. People came to windows and stood in yards looking in open eyed wonderment at the fearless chauffeur and his great machine. In 23 minutes from the time the trio left Newark the machine was stopped at the principal store in Hanover. Inquiring as to the location of the Walcott house, the journey was again taken up, and for six miles the car was never stopped. OHIO LEGISLATURE

Passed Law to Amend Ohio Militia Statutes to Conform to the Dick Bill--Eight Hours a Day's Work in all Public Employment--Friday's Business.

Columbus, Ohio, April 23.--Senator Shellenbarger, author of the county salaries bill, lost his head Friday, and moved to adjourn at a point, which made an adjournment equivalent to tabling the bill. The motion carried and the Senator defeated his own measure. No salary bill can now be passed.

The Senate passed the following House bills: By Braun of Franklin: Permitting the catching of blue gill and sun fish at any time in the year. By Crawford of Athens: Providing that where coal rights of any land have been sold or leased, the tax upon such land shall be apportioned between the land owner and the owner of the coal rights by the county board of equalization.

By Engelson of Guernsey: Providing that in any county where tolls have been collected on the national road and remained in the county treasury it shall be expended in the improvement of such road.

By Thompson of Lawrence: Amending the laws regulating the Ohio National Guard and bringing them into harmony with the Dick law.

By Williams of Hamilton: Providing that where council fix the minimum price at which an electric light company may furnish street lights and the company accepts the contract under such conditions the council may not change the price within ten years except by mutual agreement.

By Carr of Muskingum: Providing that girls sentenced to the girls' industrial home may be legally held under such sentence until she has reached the age of 21.

The Senate passed the following Senate bills:

By Harvey of Cuyahoga: To make the Ohio National Guard law conform to the Dick militia law, by providing for garrison court martial, regimental courts martial and summary courts.

By Godfrey of Putnam: Providing that no one shall be compelled to list for taxation stock in Ohio corporations on the stock of any foreign corporation whose property is taxed in whole or in part to two-thirds of the same. This shall not apply to stock in an foreign corporation unless it shall put the percentage tax upon the entire capital stock under the Willis law, the same as Ohio corporations are required to do.

By Godfrey of Putnam: Placing water transportation companies under the provisions of the Cole excise law and compelling them to pay one per cent annually on their gross receipts.

By Bruce of Lawrence: Providing that electric railroads shall be appraised for taxation purposes by a board of the auditors of the counties through which they run, just as are steam roads.

By Reich of Cuyahoga: Making eight hours a day's work in all public employment, state, county, township, city or village. It was amended so as not to require raw material used in public works need not be made in plants in which the eight hour law is in vogue. The bill as passed applies to work done directly by the public or through contracts.

The Senate adopted a resolution limiting speeches on any measure other than appropriation bills to three minutes for the remainder of the session. The Senate refused to concur in the house amendments to the Ricketts bill, fixing the price of publication of constitutional amendments at the full legal rate, and those to the Moore state depository bill, asking conference committees.

BASEBALL NOTES

Muskingum Cancels Game.

Manager Whalen of the Denison baseball team, received a telegram Saturday from the manager of the Muskingum College team, cancelling the game scheduled there for the afternoon.

Idlewild's New Infielder.

Charles Poole, the new third baseman for the Idlewild team, who played last year for Wheeling, will report tonight. He is a brother of Eddie Poole, the famous National League pitcher, and is a strong batter and fielder.

The rest of the team will be on band Monday, and begin preliminary practice on Tuesday.

The Wrestling Game.

The devotees of the wrestling game, who are increasing in number in Newark, since Jack Newhardt has taken hold of the sport, are interested in the match for the welterweight championship of Ohio, which will take place next Saturday night, April 30 at the Music Hall, between Newhardt, the local favorite, and C. F. Gugel, of Columbus, one of the best wrestlers at catch-as-catch-can style, in this section of the country.

GRANVILLE

YEARS AGO WAS MANUFACTURING TOWN.

It Contained Among Other Things One of the Largest Stove Foundries in This Section of State.

Granville, O., April 23.--The classic village of Granville was, at an early date before the establishment of its well known schools, quite a manufacturing place. It contained, among other things, one of the largest stove foundries in this section of the state, and a large pork packing establishment. A minor industry, and yet one of considerable importance and note that was early established in Granville, and flourished for a number of years, was the manufacture of ground mustard for medicinal and table use. The mustard was manufactured by a man named Linnell, and the brand, like everything else that comes from Granville, soon became famous for its excellence and purity. The mustard was grown by Mr. Linnell himself in large quantities, and ground in a mill that he had erected for that purpose, and put up dry in round tin cans holding about a half pint each. A neat label adorned the box and every housewife and drug store within a large radius of Granville was adorned with a sample package of Linnell's mustard. The manufacture and sale of this favorite condiment continued for many years, and only died with the death of the manufacturer.

GRANVILLE NOTES

Granville, O., April 24.--On Friday afternoon the members of the Kappa Phi Sorority served tea at their rooms on West Broadway to Mrs. Willis Chamberlin, Miss Cottlow, Mrs. C. B. White, Miss Blinn, Mrs. Herrick, and Mrs. Harford.

The members of Sigma Chi fraternity very delightfully entertained a few young lady friends at dinner on Friday evening at their fraternity home.

Miss Rosalie Heister of Shepardson College, spent Friday night in Newark, the guest of Miss Fitter.

Women, Suffer No Longer.

Zoa Flora Will Secure to You the Blessings of Perfect Health--Trial Bottle Free to All.

Zoa Flora is the boon and blessing of suffering womanhood. It relieves the burdens of maternity, makes safe the change from maidenhood to womanhood and regulates the change of life. It cures all the diseases peculiar to the sex, leucorrhoea, all displacements, irregularities, suppressed and painful periods, piles and kidney, liver and bladder troubles.

Give WHITE SWAN flour a trial. New 'phone 229. 10-15-1f.

The Sins of the Fathers.

Farmer Bentover--D'ye notice, Ezry, that that feller, Lazzenberry, that bought the old Pullenwidder place, always seems to try to avoid tellin' any thing about his family or his early life?

Farmer Hornbeak--Eh-yah! I've heard a hoarse rumor that his father was a Populist--Puck.

A Leap Year Specification

Clara--Will you marry me?

Clarence--Can you support me twice as well as I've supported myself?--Detroit Free Press.

The baptistery erected in Emmanuel Church, Baltimore, as a memorial, is said to be one of the most beautiful and costly memorials ever built in that city. The Church Standard has a description of the baptistery. The font, which is of the purest Carrara marble, is the figure of an angel holding the bowl which contains the water. It is the work of Daniel French.

Paris, April 23.--President Loubet started for Rome today to visit the King of Italy.

New York, April 23.--Laura Bigger, the actress, is seriously ill.

In the religious communities where the use of meat is forbidden appendicitis is unknown.

MRS. ELLA M. SNYDER, Canton, Ohio.

Mrs. Ella M. Snyder, Canton, Ohio, says: "About twenty years ago I gave birth to a little baby girl, during pregnancy I suffered greatly with bearing down pains and had a miserable feeling all the time; I was weak and could not gain strength, and in three months was almost down with nervous prostration, falling of the womb, swollen and diseased ovaries, pain in back and sides, and dizziness. I consulted with several doctors, and for five months I was confined to my bed; I could not walk. One day my husband saw your advertisement and sent at once for a sample bottle. I used the sample and also got a large bottle, and continued using it until now I feel entirely well. Can walk all day and if I feel tired at night I take one dose of Zoa Flora to keep me from getting run down. Many thanks for what you have done for me, and may God add his blessing."

Write the Zoa Flora Co., Kalamazoo, Mich., for a free trial bottle and copy of their illustrated medical book, "Dr. Peabody's Key to Health for Women." The doctor will gladly give free special advice when needed. Zoa Flora is for sale at $1.00 a bottle by all druggists.

NURSING MOTHERS

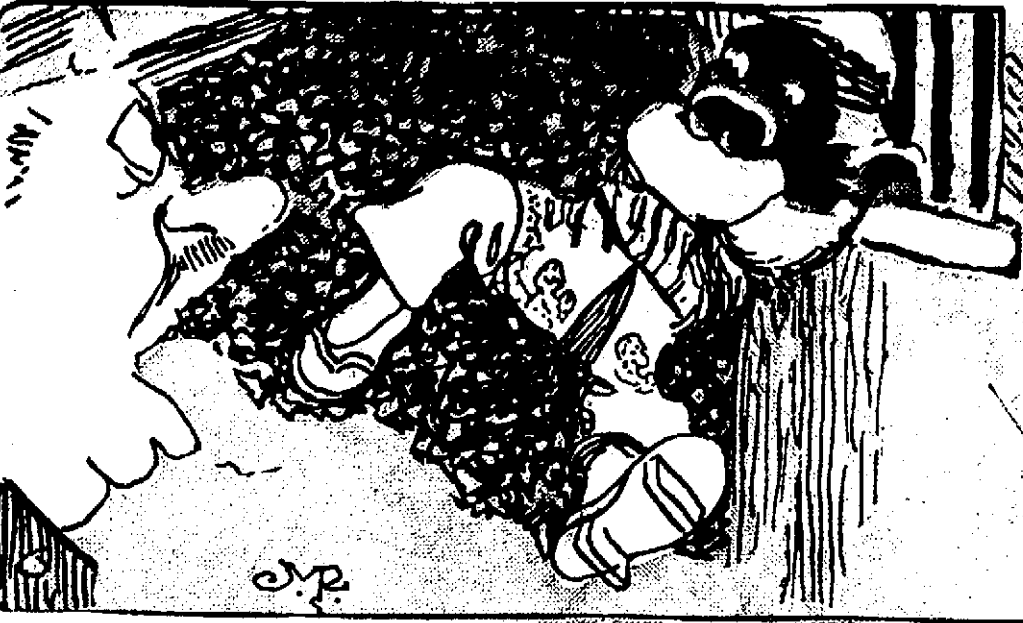

"A richer milk than milk" is good food for nursing mothers. Scott's Emulsion is the rich cream of cod liver oil, and contains ten times as much cream as milk does.

The nursing mother must eat with the purpose of producing good, nourishing milk for her baby. A little Scott's Emulsion is often a very wise addition to her daily diet. If through nervousness or weakness her milk is a failure, Scott's Emulsion will help make it a success.

The baby gets the benefit, too, when the mother takes Scott's Emulsion. The same remedy brings new strength and nourishment to both.
